

Getting to know the ladies in the office

Last week we interviewed the ladies in the office and I Rex Mavir interviewed Mrs Weston. Her favourite food is cheese on lovely white, soft Warburton's, very yummy toast her favourite super hero is the incredible hulk. Her favourite animal is an elephant she has no pets. Pineapple is her favourite pizza topping seeing our faces is the best art of the job. Getting up is the worst part of the job. Thursday is her favourite day of the week. Her babies name is Aleeza its tiring looking after the baby. Her favourite bands are the spice girls.

I, Sam Lewis, interviewed Mrs Davies and she has been in the job for twenty years! Her favourite song is Vivaldi's 'Gloria'. Like me, her favourite day of the week is Saturday. She loves working in the office because of the people and the worst part is too much work. Mrs Davies' favourite food is pasta but her favourite pizza topping is pepperoni. She likes dogs but has no pets at all. Her favourite superhero is Wonder Woman and she loves Italy. If she had any other job it would be a piano teacher, her favourite class is nursery.

I, Freya Hickie, interviewed Mrs Pattison. She started working in the office around two to three years ago. She doesn't have a least favourite part of the job, however, her favourite part of the job is helping parents and children. Mrs Pattison's favourite food is chilli con carne and favourite pizza topping is pepperoni. Her favourite animals are dogs and favourite superhero is Ironman. Her preferred day of the week is Friday and favourite place to go on holiday is Cornwall. The most important thing to Mrs Pattison is family and I would agree.

I, Evie Wilson, had the pleasure to interview Miss Beach. She likes pizza and chocolate (separately, of course). Her favourite superhero is Ironman and she loves dogs - but she can't have one of her own. Family is the most special thing to Miss Beach. She started working here in January 2016 and she loves to go to Cornwall on her holidays. Miss Beach loves that she never gets bored in the office but hates having to get up early to get here on time! Her favourite day of the week is Friday and her favourite song is 'Thinking out loud' by Ed Sheeran.
