

Literacy:

A range of stories based on seaside adventures, non fiction, fact files, report writing, descriptive writing, diary writing, instructions, shape poems, postcards, holiday brochures/leaflets, treasure maps, posters, role play.

Continue to work on Spelling, Punctuation, Grammar and Phonics.

For example: The Lighthouse Keepers Lunch, Rainbow fish, Snail and the Whale, Rock Pool rap, seaside's in the past.

Science:

Living things and Habitats
Animals including humans
Plants
Forest School activities

Thinking scientifically, creating simple investigations, making predictions and writing

Numeracy:

Addition and subtraction, number problems, missing numbers, problem solving, Multiplication and division (2's, 3's,4's, 5's and 10's), doubles and halves, number bonds, money, shape, mental maths, inverse operations, division, capacity and reading scales, measuring, time, reasoning about number, place values, statistics - reading pictograms and block graphs..

PSHE:

Health and well-being.
SEAL -Changes (transition)

Music:

Seaside songs and chants, playing instruments, creating our own music, exploring different genres, rhythms.

RE: Creation

Jewish story on Creation.

P4C:

If you could change one thing about the world, what would it be?

PE:

Swimming
Outdoor games.

Art: Painting and Texture

Alfred Wallis
Observational drawings of shells, sea life. Shell printing onto clay, sand pictures. Collage of landscapes.
E.g. Water, water everywhere.

D&T:

Mechanisms - Design and make your own lighthouse.
Seaside food

Geography:

Place knowledge - similarities and differences through studying physical and human geography. Comparing where we live to a seaside.

History

Holidays - old and new
Seaside in the past Severn Valley link.

Computing:

Online research, inserting pictures, producing word processed materials, e-safety, coding, create and debug simple programs.

KS1

Summer Term
Topic: Seaside

